HAPPY DAYS WEEKEND SEPTEMBER 19 & 20!

Get ready, Hapeville! Happy Days Weekend is back with two unforgettable nights of live music, delicious food, and local art vendors —this year with a Vegas twist!

Friday, Sept. 19 - Alumni Night
Kick things off with an evening of community, nostalgia, and great music featuring Spectrum and Darwin Conort & Friends.

Saturday, Sept. 20 - Vegas Night
From 7-10 PM, enjoy the smooth grooves of The Happy Hour followed by a high-energy, show-stopping set from Hot Candy.

✦ Admission is free—just bring your lawn chair or blanket, grab a bite from one of our amazing food vendors, and enjoy two nights of music, lights, and pure Happy Days fun... Hapeville style!

📍 Location: Jess Lucas Park, 680 S. Central Ave, Hapeville, GA 30354
For more info, visit www.hapeville.org or call (404)-669-2116

MAIN STREET ARTIST RESIDENCY AUGUST 4 – OCTOBER 11

We're excited to welcome Julio Ceballos and Nick Twiner to Session 2 of the Hapeville Artist Residency! Throughout their stay, they'll use their studio space to create new work, host workshops, and connect with the community.

📍 Visit the Studios in Arts Alley and Jess Lucas Park!

Stop by to meet Julio and Nick, see works-in-progress, and learn about their inspiration.

🖼️ Our next Gallery Crawl is happening October 4th—and if you joined us last time, you know it's a can't-miss evening! The previous crawl was a huge success, turning Downtown Hapeville into a vibrant hub of art, music, and connection. Let's make this one even bigger! Each residency ends with a week-long public exhibition, so you'll have plenty of chances to see their finished pieces.

CITY OF HAPEVILLE PARTNERS WITH TREES ATLANTA!

The City of Hapeville is excited to announce a new partnership with Trees Atlanta to bring more shade and greenery to our neighborhoods!

🌱 Through the Front Yard Tree Program, residents can apply to receive up to two (2) free trees planted in their front yards. This program helps increase Hapeville's tree canopy 🌿, keeps our community cooler, and makes our city even more beautiful.

👉 Interested in having trees planted in your yard?

 Yard of the Month - September
Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Tran of 3423 North Fulton Ave for earning September's Yard of the Month! Their vibrant garden, lovingly tended by Mrs.
Tran with a helping hand from Mr. Tran, is a true neighborhood gem. The couple enjoys winding down each evening after work by gardening together—a labor of love that shows in every bloom.

Semiannual Fire Hydrant Flushing - October 20-24

The Hapeville Water Department will conduct its semiannual fire hydrant flushing from October 20-24, beginning nightly at 6:00 p.m. Crews will work citywide each evening until the lines run clear. This routine maintenance helps ensure water quality and system reliability.

For questions, contact Brandon Stevens at 404-669-2120 or email at bstevens@hapeville.org

Trash Can Reminder!

Please remember—trash cans should only be placed at the curb the night before your scheduled pick-up and must be returned to the side or back of your home by the end of pick-up day. Leaving cans out all week not only impacts neighborhood appearance, but can also result in a $225 citation. Let's work together to keep Hapeville looking its best!

Hapeville Performing Arts Center and the Academy Theatre presents September Shows!

September 9: Workshop with José Torres-Tama 6:00 pm

Join José Torres-Tama for an engaging workshop exploring performance ritual, spoken word, and collective memory in resistance. Open to all levels, this session welcomes artists, educators, organizers, and community members to connect with their histories creatively.

September 11: United States of Amnesia | José Torres-Tama Performance in partnership with ArtsXchange 7:00 pm

Experience José Torres-Tama's United States of Amnesia, a visually dynamic performance blending magical realism, spoken word, and ritual. As a shamanistic time traveler, Torres-Tama conjures the past to confront the present, where the sacred and profane powerfully converge.

September 14: Miss Miller in Concert with Tammy Harper 6:30 pm

Experience the captivating voice of Miss Miller, often described as crystal clear and soulful. Compared to legends like Carmen McCrae, Diana Ross, and Erykah Badu, she brings passion and conviction to every performance. Having graced stages from Kat's Café to the Variety Playhouse, Miss Miller continues to enchant audiences with her single Intoxicated produced by Grammy winners William Mr. Jonz and Lil John Roberts.

September 16: Fulton County Commissioner Mo Ivory Presents MO KNOWS Town Hall 6:30 pm - 8:30 pm

Ask Fulton County Commissioner Mo Ivory anything you want to know at her MO KNOWS Town Hall.

September 19 -October 4: Ought to Be in Pictures written by Neil Simon

Fri & Sat @ 8:00pm & Sun @ 3:00pm

Featuring Ron Raissle, Lynna Schmidt, and Katie Merriman, I Ought to Be in Pictures by Neil Simon tells the story of Herb Tucker, a struggling screenwriter whose estranged daughter, Libby, unexpectedly arrives from Brooklyn. As Libby pursues her Hollywood dreams, Herb must confront his past, his fractured family ties, and his on-again, off-again romance with Steffy in this heartfelt blend of humor and poignancy.

September 28: Chris Burroughs and Tyrone Jackson Present the Best in Young Jazz 6:30 pm - 8:30 pm

Atlanta jazz greats Chris Borows and Tyrone Jackson present a dynamic showcase featuring the city's best young jazz talent. Backed by a scratch band, this high-energy performance is sure to impress—don't miss it!
